

Worldwide American Companies Need a U.S. International Tax System That Levels the Playing Field

and Keeps America Competitive

Current U.S. international tax rules were designed to keep America's worldwide companies competitive – despite a U.S. corporate tax rate that is now among the highest in the world.

- Proposed revisions in how the United States taxes its worldwide companies would result in more than $200 billion in new taxes – putting U.S. companies at a distinct disadvantage.

Consumers Worldwide

- 95% of the world's consumers live outside of the United States. For U.S. companies to serve these markets and increase jobs in the United States, they must be able to compete internationally on a level playing field.
